

LACC Argentina Study Abroad Travel Grant

The LACC Argentina Study Abroad Travel Grant is a grant for students enrolling in the LACC Argentina Summer Study Abroad program.

To be considered for an award, you must submit a 500 word statement explaining how the Argentina study abroad program supports and/or enhances your educational and/or career goals. This statement will serve to help determine award recipients. Additionally, consideration will be given only to those students who have submitted a complete program application to the FIU Office of Study Abroad, have been accepted into the program, paid the $300 non-refundable deposit, and have a minimum 2.5 GPA.

Applying for the LACC Argentina Study Abroad Travel Grant does NOT preclude you from being eligible for additional support from other study abroad scholarship award programs outside of LACC. You may apply for multiple scholarships, but a separate application is required for each.

Grants will be awarded in the amount of up to $1,500 by a committee comprised of individuals from the Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center. All applicants will be notified of the committee's decision regarding awarding of the LACC Argentina Study Abroad Travel Grant via e-mail. A limited number of grants are available.
