

Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center

Steven J. Green School of International and Public Affairs

K-12 Teacher Training Institute: Latin American and Caribbean Global Gateways Program

July 14-15, 2020 | 10:00 am - 3:00 pm (EST) | Online via Zoom

In this virtual institute, FIU faculty, alumni and educators will share their stories of teaching in Latin America, disseminate pedagogical tools, and highlight the positive impact of FIU's Latin American and Caribbean Global Gateways Program on educators' efforts to further internationalize their classrooms. Guest speakers will explore the global educational opportunities that FIU has to offer in Latin America and the Caribbean and will share the multiple opportunities that students have to teach, volunteer, and intern abroad.

Participants will have the opportunity to engage with FIU faculty from the School of Education, the Office of Global Learning Initiatives and program alumni from the Global Gateways Program. As part of the Spring 2020 Program, a cohort of pre-service educators traveled to Quito, Ecuador where they carried out an international teaching practicum in cooperation with the Universidad de San Francisco de Quito.

The K-12 Teacher Training Institute is free and open to pre-service and in-service educators. Register here by July 10, 2020.

Made possible with the support of LACC's US Department of Education Title VI Grant.