

Que Beleza Brasil !

Presents :

Adriana Calcanhotto

Tuesday, May 11, 2021
1:00 – 2:00pm | Online Via Zoom

Acclaimed by fans and critics alike and hailed as one of the great Brazilian singer songwriters of the last 30 years, Adriana Calcanhotto is a musical chameleon who navigates from bossa nova, to samba, avant-gard, pop, MPB and beyond. A two-time Latin GRAMMY winner, Calcanhotto began her career in the mid 1980's and has released over 20 albums with multiplatinum sales. Over the past three decades her songs have become the soundtrack for millions of fans through radio airplay, mesmerizing music videos, and as themes for major TV shows. With astonishing versatility and poetry, Calcanhotto is able to compose popular ballads as well as conceptual pieces inspired by the literary greats. Because of her immense knowledge of the Portuguese language, she was invited by Coimbra University in Lisbon to teach a special class on poetry and music composition. She is also a published author and has been extremely creative during the pandemic, releasing new music inspired by the realities of Brazil.

Radio Special on Café Brasil with Gene de Souza
Sunday, May 9, 2021 at 6:00pm on
88.9FM or WDNA.org

The Que Beleza Brasil! program is made possible by the Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center at FIU in partnership with Gene de Souza, producer at Brazilian Nites and host of Café Brasil on 88.9FM WDNA.

Funding comes from LACC's US Department of Education Title VI Grant and the generous support of Dr. Jabal Uffelman.

Part of LACC's FLAC Lecture Series and LACC's Brazilian Studies Program of Excellence.

This event is in Portuguese and is by invitation only for Portuguese language students in South Florida.

For more information email ldudley@fiu.edu or call 305-348-285.