

K-12 Teacher Training

Institute: Latin American and Caribbean Global Gateways Program

Thursday, July 14 & Friday, July 15, 2022
10:00 am-3:00 pm EDT
Online via Zoom

In this virtual institute, FIU faculty, alumni and educators will share their stories of educational initiatives in Latin America and the Caribbean, disseminate pedagogical tools, and highlight the positive impact of FIU's Latin American and Caribbean Global Gateways Program on educators' efforts to further internationalize their classrooms.

Sessions will link participants with opportunities to learn about diverse educational policies and initiatives in Chile, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Argentina, and Puerto Rico, plus additional information regarding the Latin American and Caribbean region in general.

Guest speakers will explore the global educational opportunities that FIU has to offer in Latin America and the Caribbean and will share the multiple opportunities that students have to teach, volunteer, and intern abroad.

The K-12 Teacher Training Institute is free and open to pre-service and in-service educators.

Registration required by July 12, 2022:
<https://go.fiu.edu/GlobalGateways>

Made possible with the support from LACC's Department of Education Title VI Grant.

For more information, email ldudley@fiu.edu.