

Commemorating the Peace Accords in Guatemala and El Salvador: Promises and Lessons in Central America

July 12, 2022
In Person and Live Webinar
GC 355, FIU MMC

WELCOME REMARKS 1:00 pm EDT

Honorable Luis Guillermo Solís, Interim Director, Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center (LACC), Florida International University (FIU) and Former President of Costa Rica

SESSION ONE: Central American Peace Accords: Hopes and Doubts 1:15 pm - 3:00 pm

Panelists:

Cindy Arnson, Distinguished Fellow and former Director of the Wilson Center's Latin American Program

Carmen Rosa de León, Director of IEPADES Guatemala

Luis Guillermo Solís, LACC Interim Director, FIU and Former President of Costa Rica

William Stanley, Professor and Associate Provost for Faculty Success, University of New Mexico

Ruben Zamora, former Salvadoran Ambassador to the United States

Moderator:

Enrique Roig, Office of Under Secretary for Civilian Security, Democracy & Human Rights, U.S. Department of State

SESSION TWO: Lessons for the "Current" Future 3:00 - 5:00 pm

Panelists:

Bernardo Arevalo de Leon, Congressman, Congress of the Republic of Guatemala

José Miguel Cruz, LACC Director of Research, FIU

Terry Karl, Gildred Professor of Latin American Studies and Professor of Political Science, Stanford University

Ana María Méndez Dardón, Director for Central America, WOLA

Moderator:

Matthew Steinhelfer, Deputy Assistant Secretary, U.S. Department of State Bureau of Conflict and Stabilization Operations (CSO)

Simultaneous interpretation in English and Spanish will be available via Zoom.