

WHY DO WE WRITE PROPER NAMES IN HAITIAN CREOLE?

Wednesday, November 2, 2022

2:00-3:15 pm EDT

Online via Zoom

Join LACC for a presentation by Lemète Zéphyr, linguist, foreign languages didactician, and translator-interpreter, who will present on the relationships between general phonology and orthography. Students studying the Haitian Creole language will verify the correspondence between creole phonology and creole orthography and how it applies to general pronunciation. The students will apply the discoveries to concrete examples.

Presentation in Haitian Creole.

By invitation only. For more information, please email ldudley@fiu.edu.

Lemète Zéphyr is a creole linguistics and translations professor at the State University of Haiti.
