

Economic Outlook and Adjustments in a Pandemic Caribbean

Thursday, February 10, 2022

10:00-11:30 am EDT | Live Webinar

The COVID-19 pandemic has spawned 2 years of unparalleled economic strain, stress and decline like never before for the economies of the Caribbean. Unprecedented shocks to key sectors such as tourism and resource exports have resulted in some of the largest declines in growth ever recorded for the region.

This webinar brings together leading regional and international economic, business and health experts to discuss the current economic outlook and adjustments facing the region in 2022 and the prospects for economic stabilization and growth.

Registration link:

<https://go.fiu.edu/Caribbean>

This webinar is part of the LACC/CPC Caribbean Policy Series. Free and open to the public but registration is required.

Email ldudley@fiu.edu for more information.

Panelists:

Henry Mooney, PhD

Economics Advisor, Caribbean Department, Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)

Ian Durant, MSc

Director, Economics Department, Caribbean Development Bank (CDB), Barbados

Joy St. John, PhD

Executive Director, The Caribbean Public Health Agency (CARPHA), Trinidad and Tobago

Alejandro Arrieta, PhD

Associate Professor, Interim Chair, Department of Health Policy and Management, Robert Stempel College of Public Health and Social Work, FIU and LACC Affiliated Faculty

Moderator:

David E. Lewis, PhD

Co-Chair, Caribbean Policy Consortium and Vice President, Manchester Trade

Co-sponsored by the Caribbean Policy Consortium.