

Global Learning and Digital Media: Integrating Latin America and the Caribbean into the Curriculum

Monday, July 25 - Friday, July 29, 2022

7/25, 7/26, 7/28 & 7/29: Online via Zoom
7/27: In person, Little Haiti

Global Learning and Digital Media is a one-week workshop in which teachers are actively engaged in learning the historical, social, and cultural strengths of Florida's diaspora communities and their roots in Latin America and the Caribbean. Teachers gain an understanding of the interrelatedness of local and global issues and develop the skills to use digital tools and culturally sustaining pedagogy in the curriculum. Through open discussions, hands-on activities and field work, teachers learn how to enhance connections among their students, their schools, and their communities.

Registration is limited to Grade 6-12 teachers and administrators from Title I-Eligible Schools.

Applications due by Friday, June 17, 2022

<https://go.fiu.edu/2022Application>

Made possible through LACC's US Department of Education Title VI Grant.

For more information, please call (305) 348-2894 or email ldudley@fiu.edu.

Co-sponsored by The Office of Global Learning Initiatives and The School of Education and Human Development at FIU, Broward County Public Schools, and Miami-Dade County Public Schools.