

Que Beleza Brasil!

Presents:

Yamandu Costa

Tuesday, April 19, 2022

1:00 - 2:00 pm EDT

Ronald Reagan Doral Senior High School

Yamandu Costa is widely considered one of the great guitarists in the world today. This virtuoso 7-string guitar player has left audiences breathless around the world with his impressive skill and overwhelming passion. Born to a musical family in Rio Grande do Sul in the south of Brazil, he played his first major concert at age 17 in São Paulo and quickly gained international fame for his incredible talent.

Yamandu is credited with reviving Brazilian guitar music and his diverse repertoire includes styles like chorinho, bossa nova, milonga, tango, samba and chamamé, making him difficult to categorize into a single genre.

A 2021 Latin GRAMMY winner for Best Instrumental Album, Costa has collaborated with Bobby McFerrin, Richard Galliano, Doug de Vries, Gilberto Gil, Toquinho, João Bosco, Ney Matogrosso, Marisa Monte, Renato Borghetti and more. He has also been a featured soloist with prestigious symphony orchestras around the world.

"Musicians of this caliber that make you fall out of your seat come once in a generation."

– La Presse Montreal

Radio Special on Café Brasil with Gene de Souza

Sunday, April 17, 2022 at 6:00 pm EDT

88.9FM and WDNA.org

The Que Beleza Brasil! program is made possible by the Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center at FIU in partnership with Gene De Souza, producer at Brazilian Nites and host of Café Brasil on 88.9FM WDNA.

Funding comes from LACC's US Department of Education Title VI grant and the generous support of Brazilian Nites. Part of LACC's FLAC Lecture Series and LACC's Brazilian Studies Program of Excellence.

This event is in Portuguese and is by invitation only for Portuguese language students in South Florida.

For more information call 305-348-2856.