

CUBAN RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Call for Applications
2022 DÍAZ-AYALA
LIBRARY TRAVEL
GRANTS

Application Deadline:
April 15, 2022

The Cuban Research Institute (CRI), the Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center (LACC), and the FIU Libraries are pleased to request applications for the Díaz-Ayala Library Travel Grants from scholars and graduate students for the summer of 2022. These grants provide the opportunity to conduct research in the special collections and archives related to Cuba and Cuban Americans at the FIU Libraries, thereby expanding access to their unique holdings and enhancing their value as national resources.

The awards are offered in honor of Cristóbal Díaz-Ayala, the prominent music collector and independent scholar who donated his Cuban and Latin American Popular Music Collection to FIU in 2001. The contents of the collection can be searched online at <https://latinpop.fiu.edu>

CRI, LACC, and FIU Libraries are offering three research stipends of up to $2,000 each to offset the costs of a minimum one-week stay (five working days) in Miami to consult the collections.

Scholars in the humanities and the social sciences whose work will be enhanced by using the resources of the collections are encouraged to apply. Two of the awards will be given to U.S.-based scholars or graduate students, in accordance with the requirements of LACC's U.S. Department of Education Title VI Grant. Those residing in other countries are encouraged to apply for the remaining grant. As a condition of the award, recipients will be asked to give a lunchtime lecture at FIU for faculty and students on their research.
